TESTIMONY OF CHUCK FINNEY

1. My name is Chuck Finney. I am a Deputy District Attorney in the Consumer and Environmental Protection Unit of the San Mateo County District Attorney's Office in San Mateo County, California. During the period from 1988 or 1989 to the present, I have been the producer and host of the Public Radio program "Your Legal Rights" which has been produced at and aired live on a weekly basis at Public Radio station KALW (91.7 FM) in San Francisco, California.
2. For each program, I have prepared and continue to prepare and deliver, on a weekly basis, to KALW a program sheet which includes the program topic, guest or guests, the program funders, and the information on how the public can acquire free legal pamphlets prepared by some of the funders. On or about February 22, 2005, James Shook faxed to me a draft declaration for me to which he attached Attachment 1 which is a copy of one of the program sheets I prepared and delivered to KALW. Attachment 1 is the program sheet for the January 14, 1998 program. Attachment 1 is attached hereto and is representative of the weekly program sheets which I have provided to KALW. As best I can recall, I have always delivered the program sheets to the KALW box or desk of Bill Helgeson who is a KALW employee.
3. In approximately 1991, "Your Legal Rights"(YLR) was no longer made available to other National Public Radio(NPR) stations by way of the NPR satellite as reduced YLR program funding occurred and, thus, prohibited the continued use of the NPR satellite. At that point in time, KALW began to make taped recordings of the first half hour of the program and would mail the tapes with a program sheet to other California stations which aired the program and had previously received the program by way of the NPR satellite.

3/25/05 Chuck Finney

In numerous discussions which I have had with Bill Helgeson over the years since approximately 1991, he has informed me that he has mailed half hour tapes of YLR programs and program sheets to several other California stations.

4. With James Shook's fax to me dated 2/22/05, he also included an Attachment 2, a copy of which is attached hereto as Attachment 2. Attachment 2 is composed of a face sheet with "ATTACHMENT 2" and pages 2, 3, and 4 of a document which I prepared probably in early 1994. The original of that document is entitled "YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS - TOPICS AND GUESTS" and is composed of eight pages. It is a summary of the topics and names of guests for the live, weekly, YLR programs produced during the period January 6 through December 29, 1993. A copy of that document is attached hereto as Attachment 3. It is obvious that Mr. Shook obtained Attachments 1 and 2 from KALW.

5. As to Attachments 2 and 3, I cannot remember if this document was something that KALW requested that I prepare or if it was requested by the State Bar of California. I have no recollection of giving a copy of Attachment 3 to KALW, but since Mr. Shook faxed to me three of its pages, I am assuming that I must have given a full copy of Attachment 3 to KALW in early 1994. I found my original copy of Attachment 3 in my 1994/1995 hard bound notebook in which I keep copies of the YLR program sheets.

6. Until late September or early October 2004, I have no recollection of being asked to prepare a quarterly list of the YLR programs for KALW. In late September or early October 2004, KALW General Manager Nicole Sawaya asked me to make a summary of the previous three months of YLR programs. At that time, I did not have the time available to do so to meet Ms. Sawaya's deadline. I discussed that with her, and she told me that she had the YLR program sheets for that quarter, and she would go ahead and prepare a quarterly summary.

3/25/05 ² Chuck Fung

7. I have never had occasion to look at KALW's public inspection file. I do recall, however, that on occasion in the last recent years while KALW has been located at Burton High School, I have needed to look into a hard bound notebook at the front counter of KALW. This notebook has sections in it for KALW programs and has included a section for YLR which I observed contained copies of YLR program sheets. On two or three occasions, I have looked into that notebook in order to determine when a particular YLR program was produced.

8. In looking through my hard bound notebooks (in my office) which contain YLR program sheets, I have sheets for the YLR program years 1994 through to the present. At this time, I do not know where earlier years' YLR program sheets are located. I have no recollection of trashing them, and I suspect they are in one of many boxes I have saved regarding the program and which I have stored in the basement of my home.

9. I have been unable to find any other listing of YLR programs similar to Attachment 3.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on March 25 2005, at Redwood City,

San Mateo County, California.
